General College Criteria
	Important	Not Important	Doesn't Matter	Comment
Small, Medium or Large School? (Large school might mean more multiple choice tests, small school means more writing, contact with Professors and classmates)
Graduate School on Campus (Exposure to graduate classes as an undergraduate is a possibility, possibly more talented Professors, but you may take classes from a graduate student instead of a Professor, and less likely to have close relationships/research opportunities with Professor, because those opportunities may be limited to Grad students.)
Accessible Professors Small, Medium or Large Town? (or NEAR a small, medium or large town?)
Small, Medium or Large classes? Discussion-based classes? Does campus and surrounding city blend together, or clear break between campus and off-campus
Students Live Mainly on/off campus
Which Majors Which Minors Interdisciplinary Study
Double/Dual Degree Students Can Design Their Own Curriculum
Geography Limitations? (distance from home, certain States) Travel: Difficulty Getting to Campus
Weather Difficult to Live on Campus Without Car
Internship Opportunities Interesting Work-Study Jobs
Research Opportunities Career Advising/Placement
Study Abroad 4-1 Type of Programs (4 years on campus, 1 year at another campus, earn double degree, or major/masters
Challenging Environment (lots of SMART/compeitive students) vs. Big Fish in Little Pond (I'm a better student here) Students Spend All Free Time Studying vs. Lots of Time to Explore Tutoring Help
Division 1, 2, 3 sports (For playing or viewing)
Club/Intramural for which sports? Nice Athletic Facilities School Spirit
Students Avid Outdoors Active Community Service/Volunteering
Active Community Service/Volunteering Environmentally conscious campus Sororitites/Fraternities
Student-Run Clubs Start Your Own Club, If Doesn't Exist Partying
Lots of Fun, Cultural Activities on Campus
Access to Lots of Off-Campus Events or Culture Creative Outlets for Non-Creative Majors
Friendly Students Socio-Economic Diversity Conservative/Liberal Campus
Lots of International Students Special-Interest Gorups (QSA, etc.)
How's the Food? Great Off-Campus Food Options Nice Dorms
Prestigious School vs. Pretentious Students National Reputation to Open Doors?
Profs Well-Connected? AP Credit
Test into Higher Level Classes Students Have Difficulty Getting Classes Students Graduate on Time
Strong Music Program Strong Chorale Program
Can non-music majors perform? Strong Theatre Program
Standardized-Tests Optional Grades Optional								